The many friends of J. Smart, Jr., will be sorry to hear of his very serious illness about twelve days ago he developed a cold which turned into pneumonia, and despite all efforts his condition grew gradually worse, and very little hopes were held out for his recovery at the early part of the week. However, at the time of going to press we learn that although he is still in critical condition he is holding his own.

On Sunday last, Mr. H. Gazeley and Mr. K. Borbridge accompanied by Miss Alice and Miss Florence Gazeley met with an accident when motoring in Calgary. A Studebaker car colliding with the Dodge car in which the young people were riding.
 Luckily they got off without any serious injury, Miss Florence and her brother Howard both receiving a bump on the forehead which left its mark, the Dodge car came off rather badly, the left footboard and hind wheel being smashed to pieces.

A Romance of the Spanish Main CAPTAIN BLOOD by RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyright, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini
"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vignette picture by J. Warren Kerrigan
In the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

CHAPTER XX. Hostages

Peter Blood made his way through the house to the wide piazza behind it, in whose shade were Colonel Bishop and Lord Julian Wade.

"I have sent for you, Captain Blood, because of certain news that has reached me," the Deputy Governor said. "I am informed that yesterday evening a frigate left the harbor having on board your associate Wolverstone and a hundred men of the hundred and fifty that were serving under him. His lordship and I shall be glad to have your explanation of how you came to permit that departure."

"Permit?" quoth Blood. "I ordered it."

"Sound!" Whether has Wolverstone gone?
"To Tortuga. He's gone with a message to the officers commanding the other four ships of the fleet that is awaiting me there, telling them what's happened and why they are no longer to expect me."

"You hear that, my lord? Deliberately he has let Wolverstone loose upon the sea, again!—Wolverstone, the worst of that gang of pirates after himself. It's treason! It's matter for a court-martial!"

"Will you cease your blather of treason and court-martials? Blood put on his hat, and sat down unbidden. 'I have sent Wolverstone to inform Hagthorpe and Christian and Yverville and the rest of my aids to quit piracy or sail out of the Caribbean Sea. That's what I've done.'"

Colonel Bishop belowered his protest, but Lord Julian was more conciliatory.

"It is possible," Lord Julian admitted, "that my Lord Sunderland will be satisfied, provided that the solution is as you promise. Speaking on behalf of my Lord Sunderland, I am content to await the result of your experiment."

"Are you, indeed?" Bishop roared. "Well, then, I am not."
"Then I'll be wishing you both a very good day." Blood swept off his feathered hat, and made them a leg very elegantly.

"Before you go," said Bishop, "and so save you from any idle rambles, I'll tell you that the Harbor-Master and the Commandant have their orders. You don't leave Port Royal, my fine fellows. Damn it, I mean to provide you with permanent moorings here, in Execution Dock. You do not leave this house. He took a step in the direction of the doorway, and raised his voice. "No more," he was beginning to call.

Captain Blood's right hand had re-emerged from the breast of his doublet.

MRS. B. H. HART SICK FOR YEARS

Wants Women to Know How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cornwall, Ontario.—"I am now giving your medicine a fair trial and I surely is doing me good and I am going to keep on taking it. I used to feel so tired in the morning that I didn't want to get up, but that feeling is leaving me now. I sleep better and feel more like working. For seven or eight years I have had headaches, tired feelings, pains in my back and across my body. I read letters in the newspapers saying what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done others. My husband says I quit too soon, but I am not going to stop taking the Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine until I am better and have no ache or pain. Jan't that the right way? I have great faith in your medicines. They must be good when those who take them speak so highly of them. I am recommending them to my friends and I will gladly answer letters from women asking about them."—Mrs. B. H. HART, Box 1001, Cornwall, Ontario.

Mrs. Hart wants to help other women and is willing to answer letters from sick women asking about the Vegetable Compound.

let, bringing with it a long pistol with silver mountings richly chased, which he leveled within a foot of the Deputy-Governor's head.

"Don't stir from where you are, my lord, or there may be an accident." And my lord, who had been moving to Bishop's assistance, stood instantly arrested. The Deputy-Governor was swaying on unsteady legs. Peter Blood considered him with a grimace that increased his panic.

"I marvel that I don't pistol you without more ado, ye fat blackguard. Be good enough to give me your arm, Colonel Bishop. Come, come, man, your arm."

"Now write unless you prefer the yard-arm."

"Though invisible, it's aiming at ye none the less, and I give you my word of honor that I'll shoot ye dead upon the very least provocation, whether that provocation is yours or another's. And now, ye greedy langman, step out as brisk and lively as ye can, and behave as naturally as ye may, or I'll be the black stream of Cocytus ye'll be contemplating." Arm in arm they passed through the house and down the garden, where Arabella hurried, awaiting Peter Blood's return. She was convinced now that she had done him a monstrous injustice, therefore she lingered there in the garden, awaiting his return that she might make amends. And when at last he came, it was in company—unusually close and intimate company—with her uncle. In vexation she realized that explanations must be postponed.

He passed, with his companion, from that fragrant garden into the courtyard of the fort. Here the Commandant, who had been instructed to hold himself in readiness with the necessary men against the need to effect the arrest of Captain Blood, was amazed by the curious spectacle of the Deputy-governor of Jamaica strolling forth arm in arm and apparently on the friendliest terms with the intended prisoner. For as they went, Blood was chatting and laughing briskly.

They passed out of the gates unchallenged, and so came to the mole where the cock-bout from the Arabella was waiting. They took their places side by side in the stern sheets, and were pulled away together, always very close and friendly, to the great red ship where Jeremy Pitt so anxiously awaited news.

Colonel Bishop stood in the waist, his great face blanched to the color of clay, his mouth loose, almost afraid to look at the sturdy ruffian who lounged about the shot-rock of the main hatch.

"Now, don't be alarming yourself, Colonel, darling," Blood said. "We'll talk the matter over while we are dining, for I trust you'll not refuse to honor my table by your company."

He laid away the witless, cowed bull to the great cabin.

"May I ask what . . . what are your intentions?" Bishop quavered.

"Ye've said his lordship made a mistake when he handed me the command, and when the Secretary of State did me the honor to design for me. I'm disposed to agree with you; so I'll take to the sea again. I'll be getting back to Tortuga and my buccaners."

"My God!" groaned the Deputy-Governor. "Ye . . . ye never mean that ye'll carry me to Tortuga!"

"No, no. All I want is that ye insure my safe departure from Port Royal. Ye've given certain orders to your Harbor-Master, and others to the Commandant of your plague fort. Ye'll be so good as to send for them both aboard here, and inform them in my presence that the Arabella is leaving this afternoon on the King's service and is to pass out unmolested. And so as to make quite sure of their obedience, they shall go a little voyage with us, themselves. Here's what you require. Now write—unless you prefer the yard-arm."

Bishop glared at him; then shrugging heavily, he took up the pen and sat down at the table. In an unsteady hand he wrote that summons to his officers. Blood dispatched it ashore; and then bade his unwilling guest to table.

"I trust, Colonel, your appetite is as stout as usual."

The Captain felt to with a good appetite. But before he was midway through the meal came Hayton to inform him that Lord Julian Wade, had just come aboard, and was asking to see him instantly.

"I was expecting him," said Blood. "Fetch him in."

Blood signaled to the servant, who was standing behind Bishop.

"Set a chair for his lordship, Hayton, send his lordship's boat ashore. Tell them he'll not be returning yet awhile."

"What's that?" cried his lordship. "Blatter me! Dye mean to detain me?"

"Just to make myself and my lady here safe from Colonel Bishop's gallows. There's a note from his hand gone ashore to summon the Harbor-Master and the Commandant of the fort. Once they are aboard, I shall have all the hostages I need for our safety."

"You fool," his lordship said. "Do you dream that I came aboard your plate ship without taking my measures? I informed the Commandant of exactly how you had compelled Colonel Bishop to accompany you. Judge now whether he or the Harbor-Master will obey the summons, or whether you will be allowed to depart as you imagine."

"I'm sorry for that," said Blood. "But not on my own account. It's the Deputy-Governor here I'm sorry for. Dye know what ye've done? Sure, now, ye've very likely hanged him. 'My God!' cried Bishop in a sudden increase of panic."

MINARD'S Relieved His Rheumatism

Here is one of many letters testifying to the relief Minard's gives in cases of rheumatism. "I have been relieved of rheumatism by your liniment. I thought I would never be free from this terrible pain and I tried many remedies, but Minard's was the only one which gave me relief."

ALFRED RICHARD, St. Samuel, P. Q.

Minard's is also splendid for stiffness of the joints, sprains, bruises, etc.

MINARD'S LINIMENT

Has Had Romantic Career

W. H. Nurey at Eighty is Writing Autobiography

Walter H. Nurey, who has just passed the eightieth milestone of his romantic and checkered career, and who is known from ocean to ocean in Canada, is now completing an autobiography called "The Vicissitudes of a Vagrant."

Few men have had so unusual a career as Nurey. He was in India and China before coming to Canada at the age of 20. He farmed near Hamilton, and was a banker in Toronto. He roamed the plains with the bison, portaged the rapids of the Mackenzie with the early fur traders, was deputy minister of agriculture in the first Manitoba Government, mixed in Mexican and Hawaiian revolutions, has written books and edited newspapers, has been publisher, manufacturer and company promoter, and was a friend of Sir William Van Horne, Lord Strathcona and Lord Dufferin.

Nurey has just recovered from a severe illness. "When I look back over my life, the delights and sorrows of a trail breaker are vivid in my memory, the grey dawn breaking in camps on the northern trails, the crunch of heels in the snow, and the yelps of huskies harnessed once more to the sled. I feel as though I were young again, just to live my life over."

BEST MEDICINE SHE EVER USED

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Highly Praised by a New Scotland Lady

Among the well known and esteemed residents of Hemford, N.S., is Mrs. Annada Woodworth. Some four years ago Mrs. Woodworth had the misfortune to lose her husband, and as a result of caring for him during his illness, and attending to farm duties, she became terribly run-down. Mrs. Woodworth says she felt as though her blood had turned to water. The least exertion would leave her tired and breathless. She was often attacked by spells of weakness that left her almost speechless, and frequently fainted. In this condition she one day read in a newspaper of a case very similar to her own, in which health was restored through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This made her decide to give these pills a trial. After using a few boxes she found the pills were helping her, and she continued their use until her old-time vigor and vitality were restored. Now Mrs. Woodworth looks after a small farm of fifteen acres, besides doing all her household duties, and says she never felt better or more energetic in her life. She gives credit for her present splendid health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which she says are the best medicine she ever used, and strongly recommends the pills to all run-down people.

You can get these Pills from any druggist or dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Why He Chose Canada

Englishman Thought What Suiited Prince Was Good Enough For Him

"What was good enough for the Prince of Wales is good enough for me," was the principle that guided W. W. Hubbell, late of Staffordshire, England, in choosing Canada as the future home for himself and family. "Yes," said Mr. Hubbell, "when a man like the Prince of Wales, who has travelled all over the world, buys a ranch in Alberta, it means that he has found Canada to be a pretty good country." The Hubbells, however, will take up farming in Manitoba.

Mrs. Hubbell also was questioned as to why Canada was selected. "Well," she said, "I had a great uncle who here lived to be 113 years old. I concluded it must be a healthy country, even though it does get cold at times."

Snakes in Ireland

Small Serpent is Found in the Vicinity of Dublin

Notwithstanding the legend that St. Patrick banished all the snakes from Ireland, one has been discovered in Dublin, and is now on exhibition in the national museum. It is a very small specimen, less than two feet long, and of the harmless variety. News of the find caused much comment in the press.

Snakes have occasionally been thought to be the cause of various diseases, but they have never known to breed there.

Royal Pair Visited Tutankhamen's Tomb

Duke and Duchess of York Took Arduous Journey Across Desert

The Dukes of York, it is said, is thinking of publishing in book form the diary which he has kept of his big game hunting trip to Kenya. Few details of the tour have been made public, but those in the know in Nairobi say that the royal pair had some remarkable escapes from the lions, elephants and buffalo. On their way from Khartoum to Cairo the Duke and Duchess made a detour to the Valley of Kings to see Tutankhamen's tomb, travelling part of the way by car and the rest on donkey-back across the desert—a somewhat arduous journey. Several times the royal couple were carried over swamps and rivers pickaback by natives.

British Suffered Most From War

And No Nation Has Made More Sacrifices For Peace

So far as Great Britain is concerned, she has already disarmed. She has drastically cut down her army. Her air force is but the shadow of the great organization which it was at the close of the war, when it was superior in strength and efficiency to that of any other nation. The British navy now takes second place in the world, whether in point of numbers or of new ships. . . . No people in the world have made such sacrifices for peace; perhaps, also, no people in the world, not even our Allies, the French, have suffered so much from war.—London Daily Mail.

CONTINUE WORK OF ASSISTING ARMY VETERANS

Ottawa.—Some interesting figures on the cost of soldiers' re-establishment have been submitted to the house. Not including the cost of administration, the department last year disbursed $49,666,179 for pensions and re-establishment of veterans of the Great War. The cost of administration was $2,485,645, or about 4.8 per cent. of the total disbursement.

In answer to suggestions that the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment should be abolished, Hon. H. S. Beaud told the house there was no hope that the machinery of the department could soon be dispensed with.

For many years the payment of pensions, Canadian and Imperial, the providing of treatment, the supply of artificial limbs, and all other services handled by the department, must go on. Personally, said Dr. Boland, he was not anxious to remain as minister of the department one moment longer than was required by the department.

Increase Outposts

Making Effort to Halt Unlawful Entry of Aliens

Minot, N.D.—Immigration forces operating along the international boundary line have increased their outposts considerably within the last few days in a determined effort to halt the unlawful entrance of aliens into this country from Canada, according to F. A. Winsor, of Portal, N.D., inspector in charge of patrol, who is in Minot.

Not in many months, according to the official, have there been so many foreigners attempting or planning to make unlawful entrance into this country. However, with additional patrolmen available, and every foot of the border now covered by experienced men, it is believed the situation is well under control.

Suggested Relief For Unemployment

Britain Should Co-operate With Dominion For Railroad Orders
London.—That the British Government should co-operate with the overseas dominions to assure a regular flow of orders for bridges, steel rails and all kinds of heavy engineering equipment for railroads, in order to relieve the grave unemployment existing in English and Scottish yards, was the proposal made to Premier Stanley Baldwin at a conference with J. T. Brownlie, president of the Amalgamated Engineering Union, which seems likely to be adopted.

The state is ready to give support to any practical scheme for the relief of this unemployment, said Mr. Baldwin, and the idea that the government should co-operate financially with the dominions, while at the same time giving some form of limited subsidy to the leaders here in an effort to stimulate empire development, is warmly received.

Saskatchewan Wheat Pool

Big Membership Campaign Is Planned To Commence Shortly

Regina, Sask.—Dwarfing any previous similar efforts, the management of the Saskatchewan wheat pool, immediately the provincial elections are over, will start a province-wide movement to obtain 2,000,000 additional acres under contract. Organization work for the effort has already been started at the head office in Regina. At the same time it will attempt to obtain the necessary percentage of acreage for the coarse grain pool, which will operate for the first time this year. The initial move for coarse grain acreage is the mailing of the contracts to all wheat pool holders.

Anti-Soviet Chief Ends Life

Denied Release From Prison Throws Himself From Cell Window

Moscow.—Noted recently that there was little chance of his liberation, General Boris Savinkoff, notorious anti-Bolshevik leader, has committed suicide by throwing himself from the window of his cell. He was serving a long term on a multitude of charges growing out of his seven years' struggle against the Soviet regime.

His trial, on August 25, 1924, at which there was neither prosecution nor defence, constituted probably the most dramatic case that ever came before the revolutionary war tribunal.

Colonial Office In Britain

London.—The Morning Post, dealing with the proposed re-organization of the colonial office, says it doubts if the word "colonial" in connection with the office, really offends the susceptibilities of the overseas dominions.

Senate Vacancies

Government Awaiting Outcome of Proposed Provincial Convention

Ottawa.—The possibility that the proposed inter-provincial conference on senate reform might result in a reduction in the membership of the senate was suggested in the upper chamber as a reason for the delay in filling the seven vacant seats in the senate.

Answering Raoul Dandurand, government leader, said that his impression was that the government had not filled the vacancies because it was awaiting the outcome of the proposed provincial convention on the senate.

Senator Loughheed added that perhaps the approaching general election might have something to do with the delay.

Canadian Chief Of Staff Sees Danger Of War

Ottawa.—Addressing a military gathering here, General J. H. MacBrien, Canadian chief of staff, said existing peace would not prevent war. "No thinking man can read the daily papers, make an examination of the frontiers in Europe, read of the trade rivalry between the United States and Japan, realize the huge importance placed by commercial countries on control over such strategic positions as the Suez Canal and the Straits of Gibraltar, without coming to the conclusion that, sooner or later, there must be grave danger of war," the general said.

Industrial Disputes Act

Amended Act Passes House of Commons

Ottawa.—With minor changes, the bill to amend the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act (commonly known as the Lemieux Act) went through all stages in the house. The bill was made necessary, by the decision of the privy council which found the existing I.D.I. Act ultra vires, in that it encroached on provincial jurisdiction. The purpose of the bill, generally speaking, is to limit the application of the act to matters not within the legislative jurisdiction of any province. There is a further provision to take advantage of the provisions of the Dominion act should it so desire.

London.—The Daily Chronicle says the police are taking strong measures against the Bolsheviks in London. The permits of numerous persons to remain in England have been cancelled, and the renewal of others refused, the number being dealt with mounting into the hundreds.

Quantities of literature also have been seized. In consequence of these measures, the paper declares, the Bolshevik bookshop here, where the newspaper Pravda, the Izvestia, and other publications were sold, has been closed, and the official Bolshevik paper in England, the Soviet Union Review, has ceased publication.

The staffs of the Russian commercial establishments are being greatly reduced, says the Chronicle, but it is unaware whether this is due to the police campaign or merely to economy.

Declares Canada Is Interpreter Of Ideals

President of Toronto University Delivers Address In London

London.—Canada's position as the interpreter of ideals between the two great English-speaking nations, Britain and the United States, featured the address of Sir Robert Falconer, president of the University of Toronto, delivered here at a large gathering presided over by the Lord Mayor of London.

Sir Robert declared it was evident Canada now held an extraordinary position of vantage, compared with even half a century ago. Britain regarded Canada with the pride of a mother over her first-born.

Canada, said the speaker, would perform her function of interpreter between the two nations, not of set purpose, but by simply being true to herself and living her own life. Even more important than that was the truth which Canada might perform in interpreting to the United States the character of the British commonwealth.

Wheat Carry Over Smaller

World Supply Is Sufficient Until New Crop Is Marketed

Washington.—Indications of a smaller world wheat carry over on July 1 were published by the department of agriculture. The carry over was estimated at 125,000,000 bushels as compared with 285,000,000 bushels July 1 last year, and 356,000,000 bushels July 1, 1923. This indicates that sufficient wheat is available for the world's needs till the new crop comes upon the market, the department declared.

Urgent Need of Research Work To Overcome Heavy Loss To Farmers From Plant Diseases

E. S. Archibald, director of experimental farms, believes that there is urgent need of research and experimental work. Referring to the losses sustained by farmers on account of lack of knowledge in controlling various plant diseases, he is reported to have said:

"The annual losses in our field crops alone reach a staggering total. For example, grain smuts cause an annual loss of upwards of $12,000,000, and grain rusts cause an annual loss of some $5,000,000 to $50,000,000. Losses from potato diseases annually total from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000. Crop production is low in many areas, due to insufficient knowledge of moisture control or cultural methods, or for the lack of suitable types and varieties of crops. The total amount of these losses is beyond estimation. Crops formerly grown successfully in some parts of Canada are now produced with low yields and high costs."

Production cuts in nearly every field, orchard, garden or animal product, are far too high, due to low yields, inferior quality and to heavy and often controllable losses. Canada's prosperity depends largely on agriculture, and in turn agricultural prosperity depends on the ability to satisfy local markets and produce a large surplus of superior quality for export. Unless this surplus is produced at a cost per unit sufficiently low to compete with other exporting countries, then our export trade, in fact, our agricultural prosperity, is curtailed, if not doomed.

"There never was a time in Canada's history when careful investigation and experimentation in all the many problems of production and loss, with so much needed nor offered such excellent returns."

"Agricultural experimentation and investigation are not the 'frits' added to model farms, but actually constitute the purpose and almost the entire work of these government-operated institutions."

Estimated Crop Acreage

May Be Slightly Less Than Last Year In Prairie Provinces

Crop acreage in the western provinces this year will be slightly less than last year, according to the first weekly crop report issued by the Canadian Pacific Railway. According to preliminary figures Manitoba will sow about 2,643,000 acres this year; Saskatchewan, 5,555,193; and Alberta, 7,731,692, making a total area of 13,929,885, which compares with 14,152,906 in 1923. Saskatchewan is the only province to allow increased acreage this year. Now breaking and summer-fallow in that province remain about the same as last year. Fall ploughing however, shows a considerable increase, amounting to 2,828,454, compared with 483,125 in 1923.

Dairy Export Trade

Amount of Dairy Products Exported Continue to Increase

Exports of dairy products from Canada last year continued to increase and the aggregate value rose from $38,245,009 in 1922 to $41,553,730 in 1924, according to a report of the federal department of agriculture. Cheese exported in 1924 amounted to 131,465,660 lbs., compared with 116,391,960 in 1923; condensed milk, 40,259,425 lbs., against 41,092,200 lbs.; butter, 27,245,938 lbs. compared with 13,172,711 lbs.; milk powder, 7,264,947 lbs., against 4,975,887; fresh cream, 2,788,822 gals., compared with 2,664,747 gals.; and casein, 67,939 lbs., against 5,910 lbs.

Newspapers Eat Trees

Responsibility For Depletion of Forests Rests On the People

The timber from 7,500 acres of land is required each week for America's Sunday newspapers. It takes the pulp trees from that much land to provide their newspaper paper. Yet publishing is only one of the hundred groups of industries that draw their material from the forest. The gigantic lumber industry, with its 20,000 mills, consumes only a third of the wood that is annually removed from the forest. More wood is used for fuel than for lumber. Directly and indirectly the responsibility for depletion of forests rests on every citizen who uses wood in any of its manufactured forms. Carelessness and waste characterize our attitude toward forest products. They have been too cheap and plentiful to be appreciated—hence the forest is being depleted.

A Difficult Business

Would Seem That the Farmer Must Be a Man of Many Parts in Order to Succeed

Not only must the farmer be a scientist as regards soil chemistry, weather, breeding, veterinary medicine and botany; a dexterous manual laborer, mechanician and jack-of-all-trades; but also a buyer and a seller, a trader in perishable goods on uncertain markets. He must gamble against parasites and hailstorms, droughts, frosts and floods. If he wins, he gets his stake back plus a little; if he loses, he loses his stake plus a year's work. This is the most difficult business in the world and the worst paid. What is he, or what are we, going to do about it?—The Independent.

Shipping Western Coal

Heavy Coal Movement Over Canadian National Lines

Seventy-five per cent. of all coal handled out of Western Canada fields during the year ended March 31, 1925, moved over Canadian National lines, according to figures learned by officials of the C.N.R. in Winnipeg. Of a total of 2,922,061 tons of commercial coal handled from the mines during the period, 1,866,270 tons were handled by Canadian National and 1,055,791 by other lines. The total shipments over Canadian National during the year showed an increase of more than 30,000 tons over those of the previous year.

Apiaries In Saskatchewan

400 Registered Beekeepers Now in the Province

Saskatchewan's bee population is due for an increase; 120 out of the 400 registered beekeepers in the province having advised the provincial department of agriculture of their intention of adding to their apiaries. At present there are approximately 2,000 colonies of bees registered in the province. It is estimated that the bee population is about 40,000,000 at present, which will be further increased by 80,000,000 this spring.

Less Fruit Grown

Canada's production of commercial fruits for the past year showed a decrease of $9,992,913 in value, as compared with 1923, according to a statement issued by the bureau of statistics. The total value of fruits grown in 1924 was $24,566,431, while the figures for 1923 reached $34,559,348.

Perhaps the scarcity of good coals is due to the overproduction of local writers.

Saskatchewan Butter

Considerable Increase in Production Is Shown by Figures Presented

Creamery butter production in Saskatchewan during March amounted to 61,922 pounds, as compared with 51,820 pounds in the previous month, according to a report issued by the provincial dairy commissioner. Production for the first quarter of the year amounted to 1,517,951 lbs., compared with 1,652,819 lbs. in the corresponding quarter of the previous year, an increase of 12.3 per cent.

How the C.N.R. 1924 Dollar Was Spent

The full circle shown above represents the gross income dollar of the Canadian National Railways in 1924. The circle is divided into a number of segments each of which represents the proportion into which the dollar was broken up for expenditure in the directions named.

The total amount spent on these items, in dollars and cents, is as follows:
Labor	$17,216,047.40
Fuel	28,658,471.85
Materials, supplies and other operating expenses	69,069,441.81
Taxes	4,588,593.58
Equipment and facilities
rentals, etc.	6,600,661.00
Balance available to apply on fixed charges	14,775,527.92
Total	$24,205,432.55

This chart is interesting in that it is a guide to the part which the dollar of the Canadian National Railway plays in the business of the country as a whole. It is not an idle dollar. Nearly all of it remains in circulation and finds its way into every channel of industry and commerce.

As can be seen, wages paid to employees constitute, by far, the greater portion of expenditures. There are almost 100,000 employees who get their share of the company's revenue twice a month, and this money, therefore, circulates from one end of Canada to

May Take Canadian Horses

Prospect of Good Market in Germany Is Report

With the removal of the ban on horse importations into Germany by the government of that country, there may be a market for Canadian horses there, says the latest report of the department of trade and commerce. The class of animal wanted in Germany is of the farm type, well broken and weighing about 1,400 to 1,500 pounds. These horses sell at present for about $80 to $90 marks or $190.50 to $211 per head. The present duty on horses is $21.21 per head for animals valued at less than 1,000 marks.

Receives Large Cattle Order

Three Thousand Head From Alberta Going to Scottish Firm

H. F. Kennedy, president of the livestock producers of Alberta, recently declared that he had received an order for 3,000 Canadian cattle to be delivered next fall to a Scottish firm, and he pointed to this as proof that Canadian cattle were in demand in the Old Country and were receiving a preference over Irish cattle from Scottish feeders. He stated that by June 27 his company will have shipped 16,000 cattle to the Old Country from Edmonton.

The highest wind speed ever recorded was during the typhoon at Hong Kong in August, 1923, when one gust was recorded as travelling 127 miles an hour.

"We are short on population, long on taxation and legislation." That is how Sir John Aird, president and general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, describes the position of Canada as reported by the Manitoba Free Press.

His remark on population, legislation and taxation came as the result of a question as to his opinion on the best solution for the railway problem with which Canada is faced. Sir John believes that an addition during the next few years of five millions to Canada's population will settle the question and that with federal and provincial governments and railways working harmoniously together it should not be impossible to reach that figure. However, he remarked a journey through Canada was convincing proof to him the most pessimistic of the country's inherent stability. "No, it is certainly not going to the bewows," he said.

General conditions in Western Canada, Sir John observed, are perhaps a little better than in the east, with the exception of Ontario. The manufacturing sections are slightly depressed, although the retail business is now showing improvement. The depression in manufacturing was due more to over development during and immediately following the war than any other cause and an increase in a producing and consuming population would speedily put the manufacturing on a substantial basis.

Winter Loss Was Small

Alberta Beekeepers Are Laying Good Foundation For Industry

Winter loss among Alberta bees has been small, according to reports received by H. T. Luther, of Leambridge, secretary of the newly organized Alberta Beekeepers Association. At the experimental station at Leambridge the winter loss was 24 per cent., while other numbers of the association report under 10 per cent. The few heavier losses in all cases seem to be due to the beekeepers letting their bees go into the winter in poor condition. The Beekeepers' Association executive are studying every phase of the business in the province and are determined to lay a broad foundation for this industry in Alberta.

Exports Of Flour

Value of Flour Exported From Canada During Past Eight Months Exceeds Last Year

Total shipments of wheat flour for the eight months ending with March last were 7,665,914 barrels, with a value of $52,106,873, compared with 8,558,111 barrels, worth $41,264,432 in the same period a year ago.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAY 31

PETER AT LYDDA AND JOPPA

Golden Text: And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Mark 16:30.

Lesson: Acts 9:32-43.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 55:1-7.

The Text Explained and Illumined

The Cure of Aeneas, verses 32-35. Just as Peter and John had gone to Samaria to look into the work being done there by Philip the Evangelist, so Peter undertook, as we are now told, a journey of inspection to the Christian communities in the cities of the Maritime Plain. Jerusalem was still the centre, and the apostles there must be kept in touch with the progress of the Kingdom elsewhere; therefore, as Chrysostom expressed it, like a commander of an army, Peter went about inspecting the ranks. In the course of his tour he visited the saints at Lydda. We apply the word saint to one who is distinguished by extraordinary piety, but Luke uses it here as synonymous with the word Christian. The saint's name here was trying to obey the will of God and was working in His Kingdom; every dialect was a saint in that sense of the word.

"Not the world-scorning anchorite,

Not the new babe in garments white—

Not these, God's types of sainthood; But he who grasps the world for good.

Takes hold of life, and men, and things,

And all their best to fruitage brings"

—(James Buckham).

Cheapest of All Oils.—Considering the qualities of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil it is the cheapest of all preparations offered to the public. It is to be found in every drug store in Canada from coast to coast and all country merchants keep it for sale. So, being easily procurable and extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it.

Presentation of The Colours.

On Tuesday afternoon last, despite the very short notice given, quite a number of our local townspeople wended their way to our local school to witness an interesting ceremony, when two new flags were presented to the trustees of the Village school, by a number of the residents. One a Canadian Ensign 4 yards long and a Union Jack 2 1/2 yards long. Mr. E. W. Willis, the principal of the school, in a neat speech, made the presentation. Mrs. Wm. Laut, on behalf of the Trustees, accepted the flags, and thanked the donors, she then hoisted the flags to the top of the pole. The school children who were gathered around the flag pole singing "O Canada" as the flags floated in the breeze, the singing of the "National Anthem" then brought the proceedings to a close.

"CONTRABRAND"
A Picture with Four Villains

This unusual state of affairs exists in Alan Crossland's newest production for Paramount 'Contrabrand' which will be screened at Havens' Hall, on Thursday, June 11th.

Two of the villains are Noah Beery and Edwards Davis who have long made a profitable business of impersonating soundbills on the screen.

Those who have read the book know that the story revolves around a young girl, editor in a small town to rid the community of the vicious political elements who are in control of the local government.

In the course of her investigations the girl discovers that even those forces that are presumably on the side of law and order are in reality in league with her enemies. But with the knowledge that she is fighting for the right, and with the help of a young professor, who has been a victim of the political ring she is successful in cleaning up the town.

Crop Report

Conditions attending the growth of the new crop in the province continue to be generally satisfactory. Splendid rains have visited the majority of districts since the last report, the greater part of the precipitation coming on May 21, 22 and 23. These rains were followed by two days of cool weather, so that the soil benefited to the full extent from the precipitation. The extreme south-east section of the province and the Peace River country did not receive the rains to the same extent as the remainder of the province.

Seeding of coarse grains is nearing completion. Wheat is several inches above ground and for the most part showing a healthy, even growth, with a few exceptions where germination has not been satisfactory. The reports received by the department state that the sub-soil moisture is greater in some districts than for some years.

Hay crops and pasture are picking up rapidly. There is an increase in area of fodder crops, particularly in corn and alfalfa in the south.

Reports have been received of damage by cutworms from some districts. A rather serious outbreak of grasshoppers is also reported from the north country. The department now has material and supervisors in the field with the object of checking this outbreak. Slight outbreaks are also reported from the old grasshopper areas, but it is anticipated that the damage will be very small.

The department is investigating the whole situation with respect to pests in the province.
